

Warner Norcross Named One of Top Midwest Law Firms for Health Care

Grand Rapids, Michigan, Dec. 4, 2017 – The law firm of Warner Norcross & Judd LLP has been recognized as one of the top 10 health law firms by Becker's Hospital Review and the American Bar Association.

Warner Norcross was the only Michigan firm in this year's ranking, which is compiled by the ABA's Health Law Section and Becker's, one of the most respected health-care publications in the country. Those included on the list reflect the largest number of members in the ABA's Health Law Section. You can see the full list here.

With eight offices across Michigan, Warner Norcross has broad and comprehensive experience in health law. The firm serves as general counsel to 15 hospitals in the state, as well as physicians and physicians groups, pharmacies, academic health centers, nursing homes, health plans and other providers of health-care services.

The 16 attorneys who are members of the Health Law Practice Group at Warner Norcross provide counsel in all areas of corporate planning, regulatory and reimbursement compliance, licensing, certification, accreditation, medical staff administration, physician recruiting, joint ventures, criminal and civil white-collar defense, peer-review actions, reimbursement matters, antitrust and other issues. Additionally, the firm advises on all aspects of practice management and concierge medicine.

"We are extremely pleased to be recognized by the ABA and Becker's for the health law work we do," said Jeffrey S. Battershall, a co-chair of the firm's Health Law Practice Group. "Our attorneys are on the leading edge of this complex and rapidly changing area of law, which has an impact on all of us. We are proud to have been named as one of the Top 10 firms for health law in the Midwest."
