

Warner Norcross Ranked in Top 10 Best of the Best in Real Estate

Holland, Michigan, September 8, 2017 – Warner Norcross & Judd LLP has been ranked in the top 10 law firms in the Midwest for its expertise in real estate transactions.

The law firm, which has eight offices in Michigan, was ranked sixth by Midwest Real Estate News, which has released its Best of the Best issue. The rankings are based on the dollar value of commercial real estate transactions completed during 2016. Last year, Warner Norcross completed more than 1,300 real estate transactions.

Warner Norcross has 37 attorneys in its Real Estate Services Group who provide a broad range of services, including commercial leasing, acquisitions and dispositions, development, construction, environmental, financing, tax structuring, tax credits, workout and foreclosure services, among others. The team regularly handles transactions involving commercial property, condominiums, farms, healthcare facilities, industrial properties, land, multi-family housing, offices, residential, retail and student housing.

The firm's real estate attorneys work with clients and properties around the country, including 14 Midwestern states.
