GREATER OTTAWA COUNTY UNITED WAY RELEASES 2019 IMPACT REPORT

September 3, 2019 – Greater Ottawa County United Way is proud to announce the release of its 2019 LIVE UNITED Impact Report to the community. The report provides a review of United Way’s impact in Ottawa County in the areas of education, financial stability, health and basic needs during its fiscal year from April 1, 2018 - March 31, 2019.

United Way President Patrick Moran said, “United Way’s impact model generated more than $7.5 million of community benefit last year, which positively impacted the lives of 62,294 people in Ottawa County. By collaborating with nonprofit organizations, companies, volunteers and donors, we are able to make progress toward long term, sustainable solutions to our community’s most pressing challenges.”

Community members are invited to view the 2019 LIVE UNITED Impact Report online at www.OttawaUnitedWay.org/impact-report. Request a copy of the report by calling 616.396.7811 or sending an e-mail to lbassage@ottawaunitedway.org.
