Macatawa Bank Promotes Erich VanRavenswaay to Senior Vice President, Chief Wealth Management Officer

HOLLAND, Mich. (Sept 4, 2019) – Macatawa Bank is pleased to announce the promotion of Erich VanRavenswaay to Senior Vice President, Chief Wealth Management Officer. He will be responsible for leading our Wealth Management practice, which offers Personal Trust, Private Banking, Retirement Plan Services, Asset Management, Investment Services, as well as traditional banking services.

VanRavenswaay, a finance and investment veteran, joined Macatawa Bank's Wealth Management team in 2018 as the Portfolio Manager and Team Leader of the Asset Management group. His demonstrated leadership and performance led him to this new role. Before Macatawa Bank, he worked with US Bank's Securities Services and Global Corporate Trust divisions, as well as Bank of America and LaSalle Bank.

VanRavenswaay received his BA from Hope College and his MBA from the Kellstadt Graduate School of Business at DePaul University. Erich serves on the Board of Directors for the Lakeshore Habitat for Humanity and lives in Saugatuck with his wife and two children.
