

NPR of America, INC is a premier Tier I, II supplier of precision valve seats serving both the OEM and Aftermarket business segments throughout the world.

Seeking Full Time Production Associates at our Grand Haven, MI location.

Available opportunities on 2nd shift

2nd shift core schedule- Monday- Friday 2:00 PM -10:00 PM

Paid Lunch Break!

On the job training provided.

Shift Differential

Great benefits

80 hrs. Vacation and 40 hours PTO eligibility

401K with match

Summary of responsibilities:

- Follows standard work instructions to achieve optimum efficiency and cycle times
- Performs quality checks to ensure product conforms to customer specs using various methods i.e. gauges, micrometers
- Monitors equipment operations to ensure all products run to the standard specs and production schedule
- Performs routine maintenance on equipment, completes process documentation

Basic Requirements:

- Selected candidates must be able to walk, stand or sit for long periods depending on the area
- Desire to learn
- Authorization to work in the U.S.
- Possess a high school diploma or equivalent
- Prior experience in manufacturing is a plus but is not a requirement

Applicants must apply online

Selected candidates must successfully pass a drug screen background check & pre-employment physical.

NPR where People, Process, Power and Performance is what it's all about! Ready to "rev up" your career today?