

Lake Michigan Credit Union's Shred Your Stuff Day is back.

Grand Haven, Michigan (August 13, 2020) – Lake Michigan Credit Union (LMCU) is pleased to announce their fall Shred Your Stuff Day.

On Saturday, August 22, from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., members and non-members can bring up to six boxes of sensitive or personal documents to the Grand Haven branch, located at 951 Jackson St. Grand Haven, MI, and LMCU will shred and dispose of them for free. Attendees must remain in their vehicles and are encouraged to wear a mask and documents should be loaded into the trunk of their vehicles to allow for safe social distancing.

LMCU has offered this service for many years, and it's just one of the many ways LMCU protects their members from identity theft. Due to COVID-19, event details are subject to change. Any changes to event schedules will be posted on LMCU.org and LMCU social media pages.

Lake Michigan Credit Union (LMCU) is the largest credit union in Michigan. Employing a staff of over 1,300, LMCU's assets exceed $8.6 billion, with a mortgage servicing portfolio of over $11 billion and over 460,000 members. LMCU has 54 convenient branch locations overall, including 11 in southwest Florida. LMCU members have access to over 55,000 Allpoint ATMs worldwide. LMCU provides a full-range of financial services, from high interest-bearing checking accounts to personal loans, mortgages, investments and commercial banking.
