Veteran Panel Discussion to offer valuable information for veterans, their widowed spouses, and families

[November 1, 2022, Muskegon] – Harbor Hospice-We Honor Veterans, Chaplain Wes and Lil Spyke, Charted Healthcare Planning Coalition, and Muskegon County Department of Veterans Affairs are partnering to present an important panel discussion for veterans of all military branches. All veterans and their families, supporters, and veterans of all eras are invited to the We Honor Veterans Panel Discussion event on Thursday, November 3 at the USS Silversides Submarine Museum, 1346 Bluff Street, Muskegon, MI 49441.

“The We Honor Veterans program gives us the opportunity to recognize the sacrifices not only our veterans have made, but their families as well. It shows our community we are intentional about meeting our veterans’ specific needs while providing compassionate care,” Amber Wallace, Volunteer & Events Coordinator, Harbor Hospice. “Harbor Hospice is honored to co-host the upcoming Veteran’s Panel Discussion. We felt it was important to have an event to educate and connect our Veterans to the services and benefits that they’ve earned through their military service. The assembled panel includes representatives from agencies and organizations that know how to assist Veterans in obtaining these critical resources.”

A panel discussion and conversation event 10:30 am - 12:00 pm with fellowship and a variety of donuts and coffee.

The event is free to attend for veterans, their families, and supporters; for questions, please register in advance by visiting weblink.donorperfect.com/WHVPanel or call 231.728.3442 / 1.800.497.9559 and speak with Amber Wallace.
